EDITORIAL

The First Amendment of our Constitution (especially the freedom-of-the-press provision) has proved, in the past year, to be essential if our country is to remain free. And, because it has so often been challenged, most citizens are aware of its exact wording: "Congress shall make no law . . . abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press."

Yet, in the battle against the publishing of material of a sexual nature, we often hear law-abiding citizens suggesting that the Constitution doesn't mean what it says. They insist (often forcefully) that what it really means is that Congress shall be able to pass as many laws abridging the freedom of speech as it wishes—as long as the Supreme Court doesn't object.

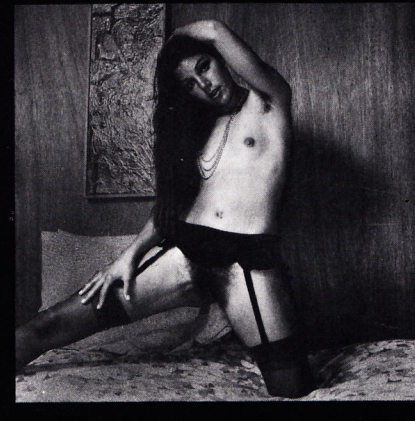
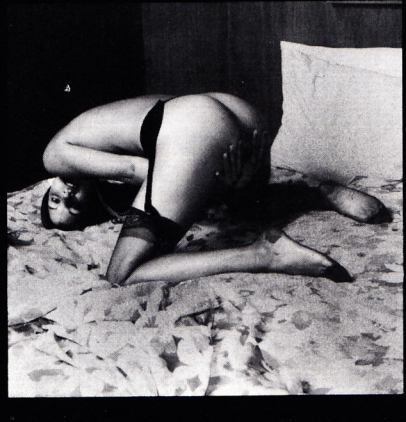
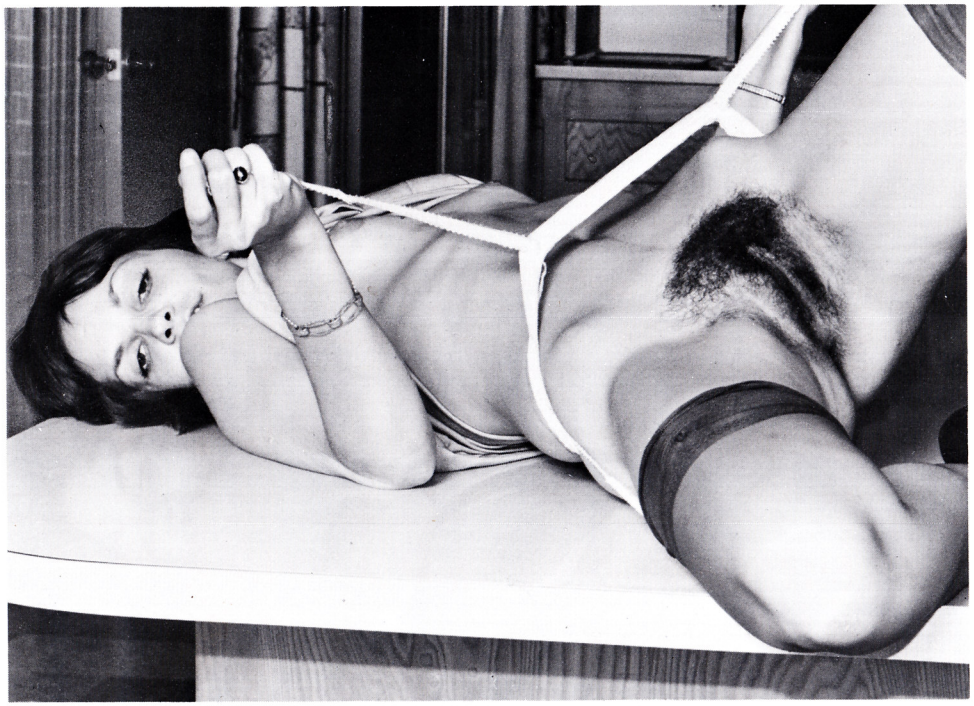
NAKED DELIGHTS (May, June, July, 1975) is published four times a year by Chelsea Publishing Company, 21322 Lassen Street, Chatsworth, California 91311. It is produced and distributed as adult entertainment aimed at illuminating ongoing changes in current patterns of societal behavior with the view that the picturing and displaying of the unclothed human body is deserving of increased acceptance in our contemporary culture. All rights reserved on entire contents of this issue; nothing may be reprinted in whole or in part without written permission from the publisher. Copyright © 1975 by Chelsea Publishing Company. Manuscripts and illustrations must be accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope; the publisher cannot assume responsibility for the safe return of unsolicited material. We do not release any information about, or sell photographs of, any model appearing in this magazine. Any similarity between persons living or dead and the characters named in fiction or semi-fiction is entirely coincidental. All photographs in this magazine, except those of public figures, are posed by professional models, and neither the photographs nor the words accompanying them describe, or are meant to be understood as, the actual personality or conduct of the models. Distributed exclusively by Parliament News, Inc., 21314 Lassen Street, Chatsworth, California 91311. Printed in the U.S.A.

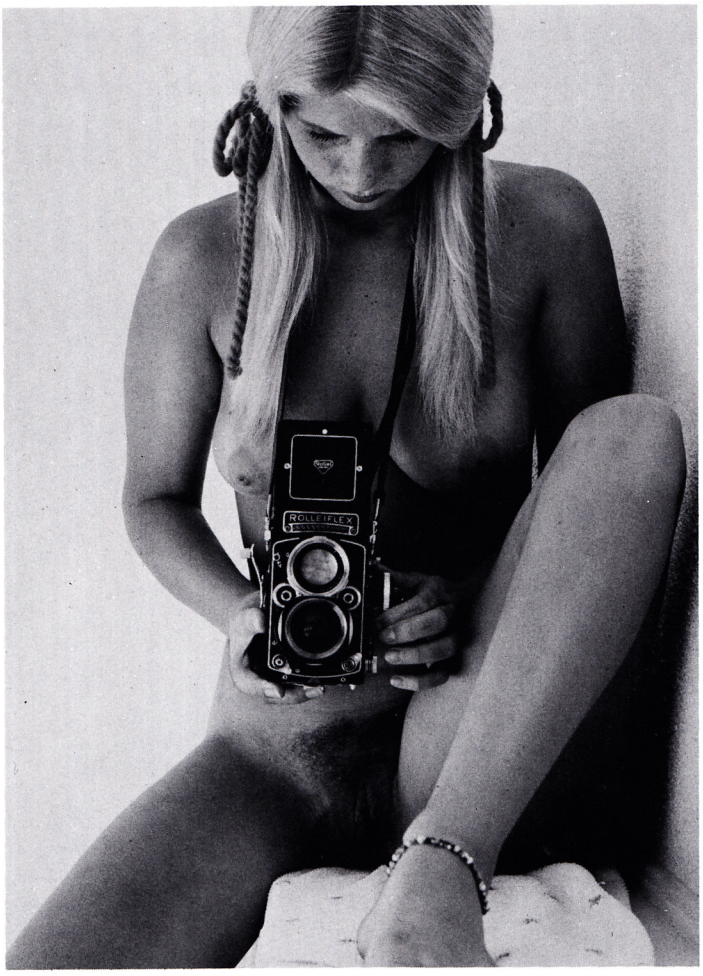
Girls are fun to watch when they wander along dressed in cute little shorts or tight-fitting dresses. They are delectable in postage-stamp bikinis and in the new thong bathing suit that is out this year. But most men will agree that any chick who looks good in smart clothes is even more exciting when she is totally naked.



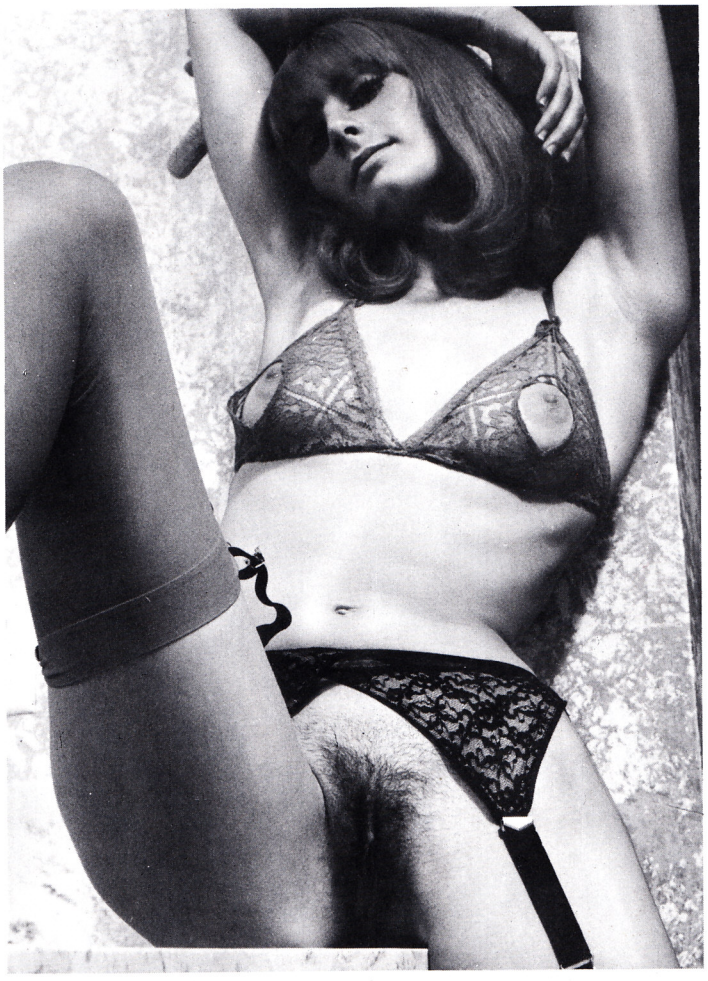


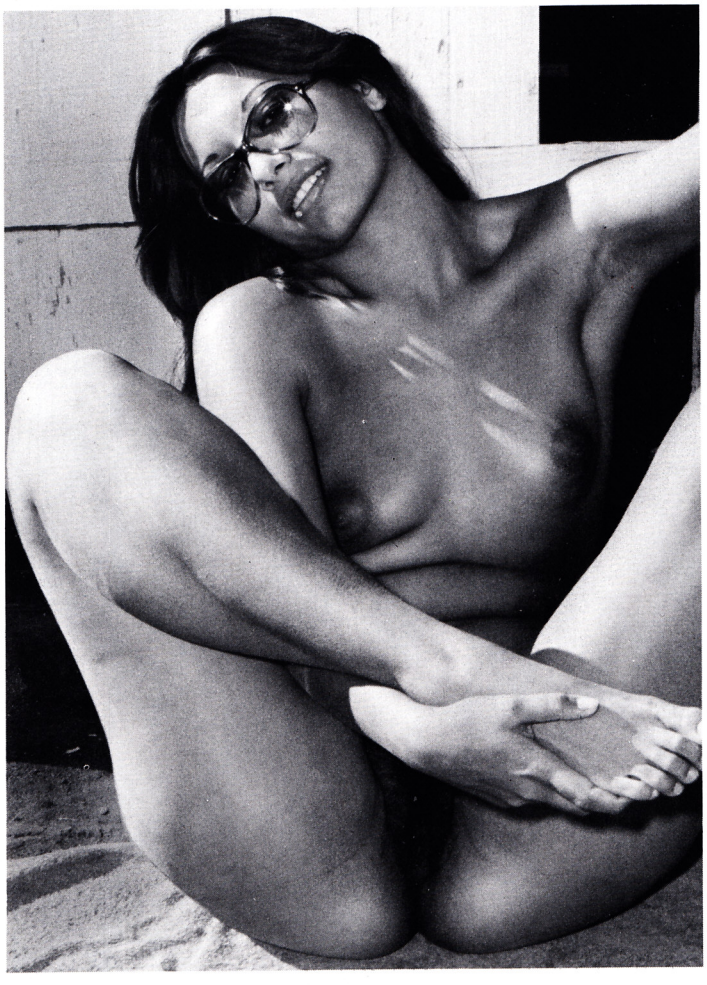


In some states, equality-minded gals have campaigned for the right to go topless on the beach, and the local legislators have, in many cases, agreed that, if men can appear in public dressed only in slacks or shorts, women should also have the same privilege. All this adds up to more pleasure for the alert sidewalk voyeur.

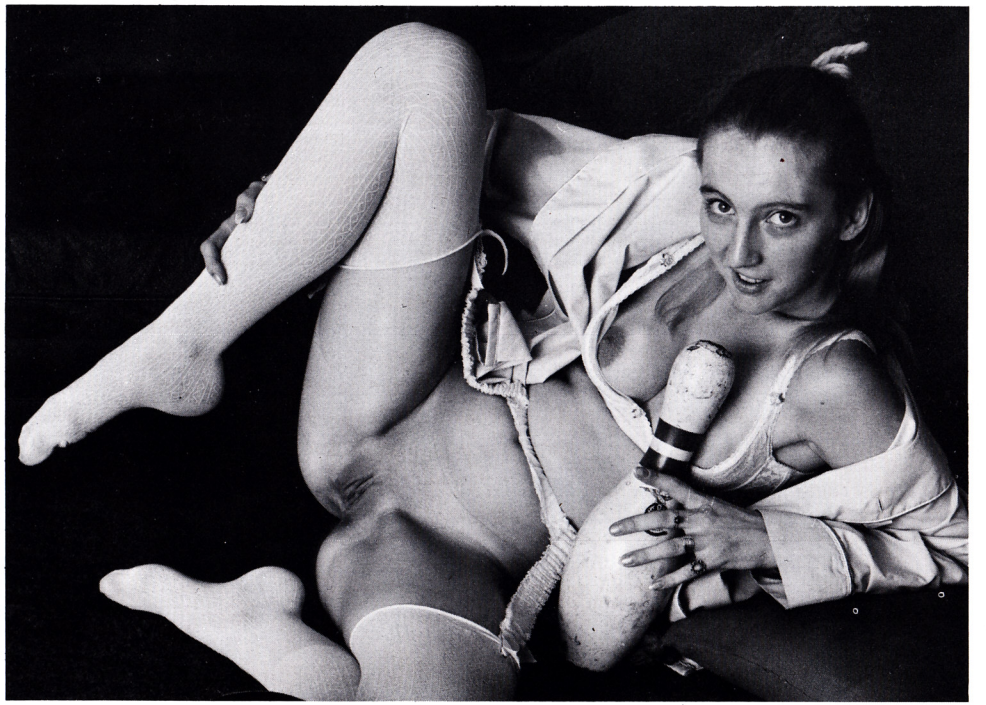


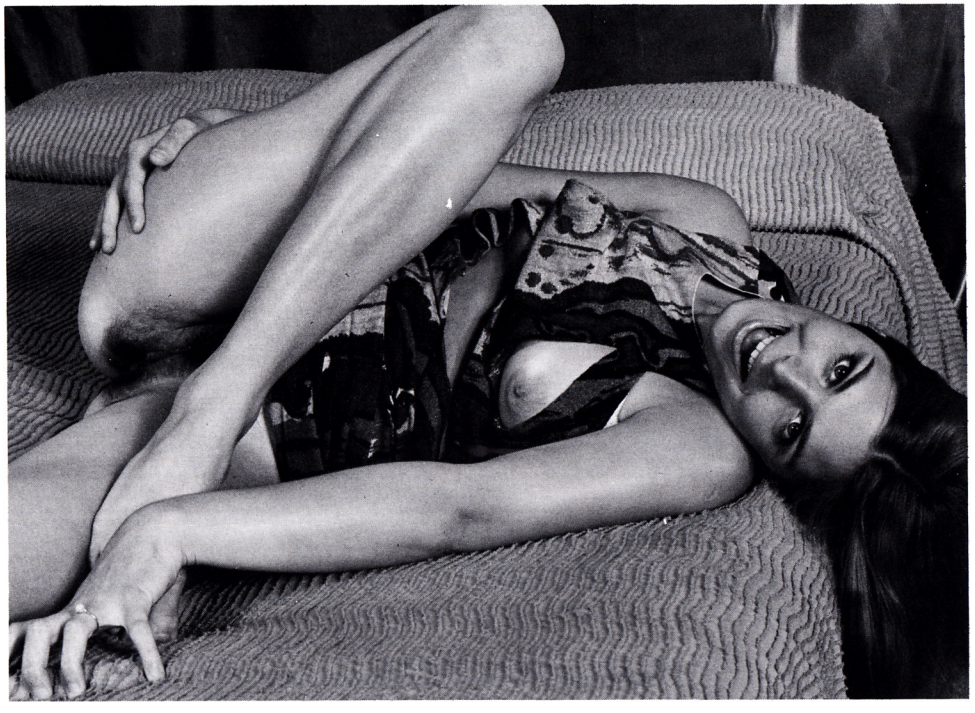
ROLLEIFLEX



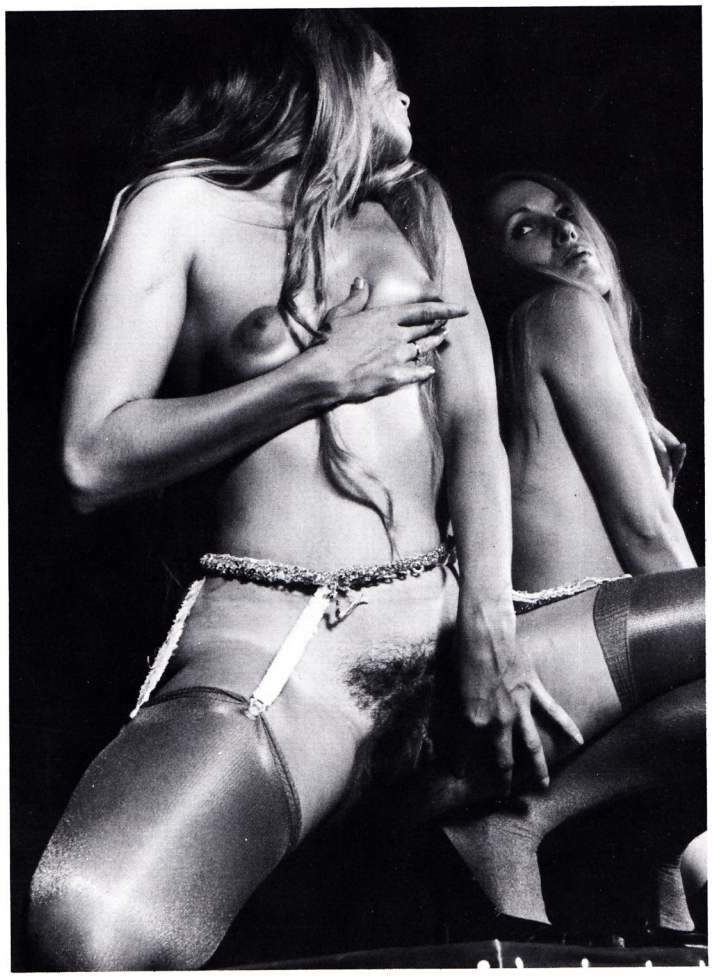


Female nudity is found in most men's magazines. The gals who pose for these photographs do so for many reasons, one of which is that they have good bodies and want as many men as possible to admire them. They model for many different photographers, thus spreading the pleasure they give among readers of more than one publication.





Today, some women advocate nudity whenever it is possible. They garden in the nude, do general housework without wearing any clothing, and even hang out laundry in the buff. One such girl insists that her plants grow better because she is "in a natural state" when she cultivates them, projecting "good vibes" that they appreciate.



As long as society condemned human sexuality as sinful, any attempt to expose the nude body was thought of as bad, simply because it stirred the erotic imagination. But, in the last ten years, our society (including some churches) has come to acknowledge that sex is a normal body function. And, therefore, nudity is gaining in acceptability.

Of course, when a gal decides that she wants to spend an afternoon of pleasure with a man of her choice, she permits him to relish her naked charms in an exclusive way not possible on public beaches or even in secluded nudist camps. At such times, she becomes her lover's private, delectable—and very personal—naked delight.

Justice Hugo Black, an honored judge of the Supreme Court, has clarified his opinion. He states unequivocally: "My view is, without deviation, without exception, without any ifs, buts or whereases, that freedom of speech means that you shall not do something to people either for the views they have or the views they express or the words they speak or write." He doesn't share the belief that there are some words—and some pictures—that deserve to be censored.

The fact is that no individual should be forced to read anything he doesn't choose himself. But neither should any person be denied the right to read words or view pictures just because someone else finds them offensive.

It's time we began to consider the views of men like Justice Black, and others before him, who have stood up for individual freedom. If America is to remain a land of the free, liberty must be available to all people, not just to a select few who have sexually restrictive attitudes.

You, as a reader of this publication, know that some people would like to deny you the right to purchase it, and others like it, because they find them "objectionable." To assure yourself all the freedom guaranteed by the Constitution, write your elected representatives and express your views regarding the meaning of the First Amendment. Write today. Don't let would-be censors deny you the liberty to which you are entitled.
